Our dance classes usually allows parents to come in and settle children at the start of the class, however due to Covid-19 and our attempts to limit the footprint, we cannot allow parents into the dance studio until further notice. We also ask that only one and the same parent (where possible) should drop off and collect their child.	Y / N
It is still important to reduce contact between people as much as possible, however we understand that at dance class social distancing is not practical with such young children therefore in order to achieve reduced transmission please ensure that children, young people and parents outside dance class only mix in small, consistent groups.
